

A nutrition Fact Sheet

Zucchini

Nutrition Facts

Zucchini is very low in calories (more than 95% water) and a good source of vitamins C and B-6, fiber, and potassium.

Buying and Storing

- Choose firm, slender, bright green zucchini without wrinkles or soft spots.
- Store unwashed zucchini in a plastic bag in the refrigerator. (For longer life, poke about 20 small holes in bag.)
- Use zucchini within one week. Wash zucchini with cold water just before using it.
- To freeze zucchini, grate zucchini (with or without skin) and place in freezer container or plastic freezer bag. One or two cups is an easy amount to thaw and use. Use within 6 months.

Preparing and Cooking

Preparing: Wash well and cut off ends. Zucchini does not need to be peeled before it is eaten. Cut into rounds, half-rounds, or quarter-rounds.

Stovetop cooking: Heat 1 teaspoon of oil for each cup of zucchini. Cook 4 to 5 minutes. Keep stirring and turning the pieces so they cook quickly, but do not become soggy.

Steaming: Bring about an inch of water to a boil. Put zucchini pieces in steaming basket and place over the water. Cook, loosely covered, about 6 minutes or until just soft.

Microwaving: Cut zucchini into ¼ inch slices. Arrange in a microwave-safe container. Add 3 Tablespoons of water; cover. Cook 4 to 7 minutes, or until tender.

Ways to Enjoy

- Chop or grate zucchini and add to omelets or scrambled eggs.
- Add grated zucchini to muffins, quick breads, or cookies.
- Add sliced zucchini to stir fries.
- Add to soups, casseroles, or lasagna.
- Grill sliced zucchini. Add spaghetti sauce and cheese for mini zucchini pizzas! Or use in grilled vegetable kabobs.
- Add to veggie quesadillas.
- Add to potato hash.
- Add to pasta and pasta salads.
- Make zoodles – zucchini noodles! Use a cheese grater, vegetable peeler, or knife to make long, thin strips of zucchini. Cook with oil or water until softened. Serve with spaghetti sauce.
- Make zucchini boats – cut zucchini in half lengthwise. Gently run a spoon down the middle to scoop out the center. Be careful not to scoop the spoon too deep or you will break the skin of the zucchini. The goal is to create a hollow space to put your filling in. Fill with pizza type fillings (tomato sauce, cheese, olives, mushrooms, basil, bell peppers, etc.). Bake at 350°F for 20 minutes or until tender.
